MISSION STATEMENT

“The mission of the Los Angeles World Airports Police is to ensure the safe and secure operations of our airports.”

HISTORY

Early History 1946-1959: Los Angeles Airport Police traces its beginnings to 1946, when Los Angeles Airport was transferred from the U.S. War Department to the City of Los Angeles.

Airport Security Division 1959-1973: The organization was known as the Security Division of the Operations Bureau. The Organization was responsible for the general physical security and for patrolling airport areas.

Airport Security Bureau 1981-1984: In 1981, the Security Division and the Boarding Services were merged, becoming the Airport Security Bureau.

Los Angeles Airport Police 1984-Present: In 1984, the Airport Security Bureau was renamed Los Angeles Airport Police.

LAX TRAVEL STATS

- 2nd busiest commercial airport in the nation
- 4th busiest airport in the world
- Prior to the pandemic 80,000 – 120,000 cars would pass through the Central Terminal Area per day
- Since the onset of the Covid-19 pandemic, LAX experienced the largest decrease in passenger load
 - 95% decrease in the first few months post shutdown
- Currently LAX is back to pre-pandemic passenger load
