

Get the Most from Your Benefits LAWA First Source Hiring Program

Participating in the First Source Hiring Program (FSHP) is a no-cost, valuable tool for our LAX employers.

Use the automatic job-scrape feature, or manually post jobs

Save time by setting up pre-screen questions for candidates

Search and save resumes, and set up resume alerts

Email resumes to colleagues for review

Accept applications directly from the website, or redirect them into your ATS

Communicate with candidates directly through the portal

At-a-glance information on your employer dashboard

Participation

Please note that most companies and their contractors that have a contract with LAWA are required to participate in the FSHP. More information can be found in the exhibits section of your contract.

Anywhere, Anytime

Whether you're viewing the job board from a tiny smartphone screen or a desktop computer, all of your membership features are accessible 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

Amplify Your Brand

Save money on recruiting costs, post an unlimited number of jobs, receive instant access to hundreds of LAX candidate resumes, and increase your brand exposure as an airport employer of choice.

Targeted Recruitment Events

Our (complimentary) targeted recruitment events are for employers who have multiple job openings and need to fill their positions quickly! The FSHP will coordinate and promote the job fair at a local venue for employers to interview prospective employees, and provide offers on the spot.

Schedule Our Training Team

Our team provides training on how to use the website and get the most out of your FSHP benefits. For more information, and to set up an information session, contact us today!
