

Construction Hot Topics

Week of November 4, 2019

1. Changes to Ground Transportation

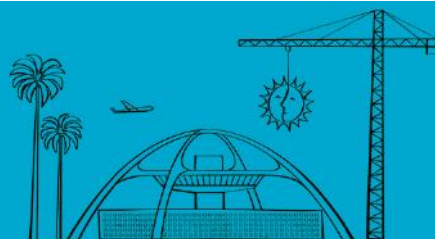

- New Ground Transportation operations, including pickup zones and waiting areas, are now in effect; see map below for more information

Current Ground Transportation Waiting Areas

Change is in the Air(port).

LAX WAY BETTER. REALLY.

Construction Hot Topics

Week of November 4, 2019

2. Terminal 5: New Restrooms Open

- New restrooms on the Arrivals Level of Terminal 5 (near Bag Claim Device #5) are now open as part of the American Airlines T4/5 Modernization Program

*Terminal 5
Arrivals Level*

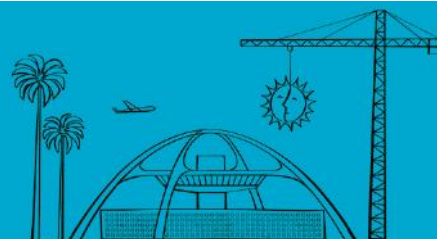

Airline Gate 40

3. Airline Gate 40 Re-Opened

- Airline Gate 40 in Terminal 4 (across from the AA Admirals Club), which was scheduled to re-open on November 2, is now scheduled to re-open on November 7 as construction continues on American Airlines Terminal 4 Gate Realignment project
- Hold room seating is not affected by this closure and will remain available for passenger use

Change is in the Air(port).

LAX WAY BETTER. REALLY.

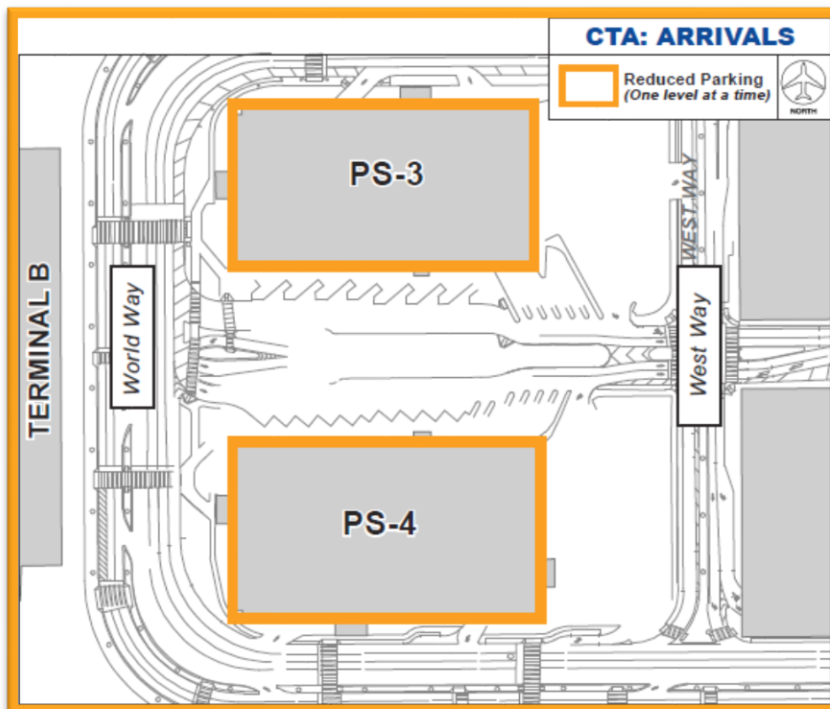

Construction Hot Topics

Week of November 4, 2019

4. Terminal B: Escalator Shutdown

- The escalator at Gate 148 will be closed nightly (1:30AM – 5:30AM) through Thursday, August 29 to facilitate utility work for the new international concourse
- Detour signage will be in place to assist passenger path of travel

Gate 148 Escalator
Terminal B

Parking Structures 3 and 4

5. Parking Structures 3 & 4: Parking Restrictions

- Parking will be restricted one level at a time in both Parking Structures 3 and 4 for construction related to the Automated People Mover project; work will not occur on more than one level in each structure at a time or impact the Terminal B Passenger Pickup Area at PS-3 Level 1
- Work in PS-3 is scheduled to be complete by December 20, 2019
- Work in PS-4 is scheduled to be complete by March 27, 2020

Change is in the Air(port).

LAX WAY BETTER. REALLY.

