1. Super Bowl Week at LAX!

- Super Bowl LVI will bring increased pedestrian and vehicular traffic through LAX as the big game is set to be played in Los Angeles on Sunday, February 13
- A Construction Moratorium will be in place February 10 – February 15 to accommodate this influx of passengers; while some construction activity has been pre-approved to continue during this time, certain activity with high impact to the traveling public will be limited
- Check out the promotional and informational graphics inside the terminals, on construction barricades and around the Central Terminal Area and scan the QR codes (where applicable) for more information on traveling safely for the big event

2. Terminal 4.5 Core: Construction Update

- The Terminal 4.5 Core Project continues to make progress on the future connector building between Terminals 4 and 5; upon completion, the Terminal 4.5 Core will provide vertical transportation for Terminals 4 and 5, as well as a connection to the APM's West CTA Station
- Once the Super Bowl Construction Moratorium is complete, the east portion of the Terminal 4 Ticketing (Departures Level) and Bag Claim (Arrivals Level) areas will close for demolition and future construction activities; to facilitate this work, some ticketing counters were previously relocated to the west portion of the terminal
- Inner roadway lanes remain restricted on both levels as they are used as temporary pedestrian walkways to guide passengers around construction; traffic and passenger drop-off / pick-up is maintained at all times
